Meeting – October 18th

County Supervisor Jim Desmond will discuss current issues in San Diego County and his testimony before the House Committee on Homeland Security in Washington, telling lawmakers that the arrival of so many migrants — many of them asylum seekers — has strained San Diego County’s resources and raised concerns about how border-crossers entering the U.S. are vetted for security threats. The hearing, titled “A Country Without Borders: How the Biden-Harris Open-Borders Policies Have Undermined Our Safety and Security.”

PRAY FOR OUR NATION

Chaplain: Julie Carlson

A Prayer for Truth

Heavenly Father,

We need your truth to prevail in all aspects of the electoral process. As Jesus teaches us in John 8:32, we know that the truth will set us free. Lord, we ask that you uncover any deceit or falsehoods and ensure that accurate and honest information reaches all voters.

Guide the hearts and minds of the candidates, media, and electorate, fostering transparency and integrity. May Your truth shine brightly, dispelling confusion and bringing clarity to all decisions made. Help us to discern what is right and just, and to choose leaders who will uphold Your principles. We trust in Your power to reveal the truth and bring about a fair and righteous election.

In Your name we pray, Amen.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

President: Melinda Winship | info@rbrepublicanwomen.org

WHO AM I VOTING FOR – AND WHY?!!

When seeking the world you want your grandchildren and their offspring to live in, ask yourself, “Which candidate will provide this?”

Remember, your vote is a chess move for the world you want to live in, NOT a dozen roses professing your undying love for the candidate.

That moment when someone says, “I can’t believe you would vote for Trump.”

I simply reply, “I’m not voting for Trump.”

I’m voting for the First Amendment and freedom of speech.

I am voting for the Second Amendment and my right to defend my life and my family.

I am voting for the next Supreme Court Justice(s) to protect the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

I am voting for the continued growth of my retirement and reducing inflation.

I am voting for a return of our troops from foreign countries and the end to America’s involvement in foreign conflicts.

I am voting for the Electoral College and for the Republic in which we live.

I am voting for the Police to be respected once again and to ensure Law & Order. I am tired of all the criminals having a revolving door and being put back in the street.

I am voting for the continued appointment of Federal Judges who respect the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

I am voting for keeping our jobs in America and not be outsourced all over the world – to China, Mexico and other foreign countries. I want USA made.

I am voting for secure borders and legal immigration.

I am voting for doing away with all of the freebies given to all of the illegals and not looking after the needs of the American citizens.

I am voting for the Military and the Veterans who fought for the Country to give the American people their freedoms.

I am voting for the unborn babies who have a right to live.

I am voting for peace in the Middle East.

I am voting to fight against human/child trafficking.

I am voting for Freedom of Religion.

I am voting for the right to speak my opinion and not be censored.

I am voting for the return of teaching math, history and science instead of indoctrination of our children.

I am not just voting for one person. I am voting for the future of my Country.

I’m voting for my grandchildren and their offspring, to ensure their freedom and their future.

What are you voting for?

Recently signed Bills:

SB1053, an expansion of SB770 passed in 2014, completely bans single-use plastic bags at grocery stores. If only oceana.org cared about all of the whales, dolphins, and other sea life being killed by offshore wind farms in the Northeast.

“Great news: Governor Newsom just signed SB 1053 into law, which means California has banned thick single-use plastic film bags from grocery and convenience store checkouts across the state!” announced Oceana.org in an email Sunday.

RBRW had fun at the Poway Days Parade in September.

Jan Stewart, VP of Political Activities

IT'S GO TIME!!

Your ballot will arrive this week. Here are some dates to remember:

10/7 San Diego Registrar of Voters (ROV) will be open through election day to receive ballots at 5600 Overland Ave. SD 92123 (I recommend this over mailing your ballot and offer to take a few of your friends' and neighbors' ballots for them too!)

10/8 Drop Boxes open (for security reasons, I do not recommend this option!)

10/21 Last day to register to vote without a Provisional Ballot

10/26 In-Person voting begins at the ROV and in select regional locations

11/02-11/4 ALL In-Person voting locations are open 8-5pm

11/5 OFFICIAL ELECTION DAY All ballots must be submitted by mail, drop box, ROV or Polling location (7am 8pm)

11/12 All mailed ballots must be received at the Registrar of Voters

12/17 Election results are sent to Congress to be certified

Track your ballot at www.WheresMyBallot.sos.ca.gov

I urge you to read through the info in your General Election pamphlet and go to these websites to research the ballot initiatives and candidates and compare Voter Guides:

ReformCalifornia.org

SanDiegoRepublicans.org

My current observations are Vote NO on all Propositions EXCEPT 34 & 36, which are YES! And all of the Measures (tax hikes!) are NO except C & D which are YES. Poway residents should read over Prop H regarding The Farm.

Volunteer to complete mailers for Kristie Bruce-Lane's campaign for State Assembly District 76 at her campaign office 16787 Bernardo Center Dr suite A14, SD 92128 or donate to her campaign at www.kristiebruce-lane.com

Assist Reform California with mailers at their office 1320 W. Valley Pkwy Escondido 92029

We need Citizen Observers to make sure the ROV and polling locations are following the rules. It's fascinating to watch at the ROV (Registrar of Voters) as the ballots come in and are sorted by area, scanned and sent for signature verification, opened and checked for damage or errors, duplicated if necessary, and sent to Tabulation. Learn HOW to observe, WHAT to look for, and HOW to respond. You can help by reading over the rules at: EIP-CA.com (Election Integrity Project of CA) is offering an online Citizen Observer training for Poll Locations and the ROV.

CAGOP.org is offering online Voter Education Training on 10/3 and 10/7 and Ballot Harvesting & Curing Training 10/1 and 10/5, plus Poll Observer and ROV observer trainings

TheTransparencyFoundation.org offers training for Election Monitoring through their Secure The Vote Initiative

Friends don't let friends sit it out! Offer to help others by sharing your research, assist a candidate's campaign, host a neighborhood Ballot Info party, give a friend a ride to the polls!

This is a MUST WIN election and you must do all you can to

We Lose This Election if You Fail to Act

By Kurt Schlichter

August 14, 2024

(excerpts taken from Townhall.com) townhall.com/columnists/kurtschlichter/

The race has tightened up just as we expected it to. But the Democrats are going to have a ton of money, and they've got the regime media right behind them. The good news is that Trump's numbers in aggregate have not fallen. And now comes the fight we have always expected. Now is the time for you to do your part. You. Not anyone else. You.

If you don't, we lose. Individual involvement will determine the winner and that means You.

There are three levels for this fight for each of us. There's the country level, the community level and the individual level. At the country level, we're looking at the big picture, not just the presidential race, but at the Senate and the House. This is where we talk about things like the RNC, which thankfully has a new work ethic after Ronna McDaniel got dumped. I keep hearing a lot of good stuff, publicly and privately, about the RNS. But that's pretty high-level stuff. That's big picture stuff; one person doesn't do much at the country level.

You have a much better chance of making a difference at the community level. Have you thought about taking a leadership role? Have you considered being a precinct captain or a part of the party hierarchy? In every community, you have state representatives, congressional representatives and various other local representatives. They all need people to run things. Of course, if you haven't already started getting involved, you're probably not going to be doing much at the community level. Nothing says you can't try. We're going to need you again in 2026 when these damn communists once again try to turn our country into a Third World dictatorship like Cuba, Venezuela or Great Britain.

It's the individual level where you shine. This is where you have got to commit personally. There's no substitute for getting out there and doing something. Of course, whether you act or not will probably not determine anything.

You're not going to be the one vote that helps Trump win. Hell, if it's that close, they will cheat anyway. But we're talking in aggregate. We're not talking about just you. We're talking about everybody reading this beyond. It's not just about you. It's about talking to other people and getting them to do things to save our country.

You've got to talk to people in your neighborhood, at your church, at Trader Joe's – avoid the wine aisle because the Chardonnay women there checking out the screw-top $5.99 vintages will probably start literally shaking when you tell them how Kamala is a communist. You're out there talking to people. You're there on social media. You've got relatives and friends - you're not one of the JD Vance cat women. You've got to spread the word that everybody needs to get a mail-in ballot if that's what you do in your state, and fill it out for the Republicans and send it in quickly.

Marketers will tell you that.

Election Integrity Project[®] California
 EVERY LAWFULLY CAST VOTE ACCURATELY COUNTED

HOW TO “VOTE SAFE” in San Diego County

To avoid excessive handling and processing, delay in counting, technological intrusion and lack of chain of custody, follow the instructions below to vote in person (no envelope):

1. When you receive your vote by mail ballot (VBM), open it to be sure there are no errors. Treat it with care and store it where it will remain safe and undamaged.
 - a. Do NOT mix your materials with those of other family members. If emergency requires you to vote with the envelope, the one YOU were sent needs to be the one YOU sign.
2. Take your “naked” (no envelope) VBM to the polls on or as close to Election Day as possible. You may fill it out at home or use a booth in the polls to mark it after check-in.
 - a. Mark cleanly and carefully—no cross-outs, erasures, smudges, stains, wet spots. Black or blue ink are equally fine.
 - b. Fully fill in the “bubbles”—no X or √ or circles. No writing or stray marks.
2. Inform poll workers you wish to vote in person.
3. Provide your name and address as required by law by filling out the check-in form.
4. Take form to clerk at electronic poll book.
5. Inform the clerk you will use your VBM ballot.
6. Sign the poll pad when requested.
7. Put ballot in secrecy sleeve and allow clerk to check sequence number at the top.
8. Take you marked ballot in the secrecy sleeve to the ballot box and watch the clerk submit it.
9. When you get home, shred the return envelope once you have voted. NOTE:
 - Voting early (before polls open) at the ROV is NOT an in-person vote, but simply an in-person VBM vote. You do not avoid the VBM processing when you voting that way.
 - If poll workers attempt to dissuade you from voting in person, or suggest you are not registered or have already voted, the magic words are: 1) “Please summon your supervisor.” 2) “Please call your Poll Worker HOTLINE.” Always be polite and patient but stand up for your rights!!
 - Provisional ballot and Conditional Voter Registration (CVR) should be LAST resort.
 - If a last-minute emergency keeps you from the polls, seal your marked ballot in return envelope, sign carefully and put in mail or allow a trusted friend/relative to drop it off for you at the polls or drop box. If submitted or postmarked by Election Day, it will count.

This passage was read at the September RBRW board meeting by Julie Carlson. The board members really liked this and wanted to share this with you.

Food for Thought

Plant Four Rows of Squash

Squash gossip

Squash indifference – what opportunity is there for us to exploit

Squash grumbling or criticism – people are down on what they are not up to

Squash selfishness

Plant Four Rows of Lettuce

Lettuce be faithful to our Club, true to our obligation

Lettuce be kind and have respect for one another

Lettuce be happy and really love one another

Lettuce obey rules and regulations and respect our leadership

No Garden Should be without Turnips

Turnip for service to our Club when

Turnip to help one another with new ideas

Turnip prepared to listen and respect another person's ideas

Turnip at meetings regularly

Turnip with a smile

Turnip with the determination that your Club is Best

Water freely with patience and Cultivate with Love or Weeks will crowd out the seeds of good intentions.

Weed Out....Excuses, Alibis and crises...

There is much fruit in your garden ... because you reap what you sow.

It is not what happens in life that is important. It is how we take it.

Good character and good conduct are developed from meeting life head on.

To conclude our Garden....

We must have Thyme:

Thyme for fun

Thyme for rest

Thyme for ourselves

Thyme for our Families

Sit back, water the garden, nurture it, watch it grow...

The Foundation for Women Warriors is the organization we have selected for our support of the military. They are a nonprofit 501(c)(3) Charity. The Foundation consists of women who served in the military and have since left the military and need a little help to transition to civilian life and develop their post-military careers.

We will be supporting them in their Holiday Drive. They have identified 200 veteran families in need. Their goal is to provide clothes and toys for the children of the military veterans. We ask that you bring a donation to our meeting on November 15th.

Please bring unwrapped new and unused children's toys and games for ages 4 to 12. We will take your generous gifts to their warehouse in Vista, CA. The toys and games will be distributed after December 6, 2024. They will have an event to assemble the donations and when the Foundation posts a date, we will notify you if you want to participate. If you wish to donate something different from or in addition to the toys, the Foundation also has an ongoing group list on www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist, where you can select from their list of needed items and have the item(s) delivered directly to their warehouse in Vista, CA.

AMERICANISM

Submitted by Julie Carlson

Perseverance

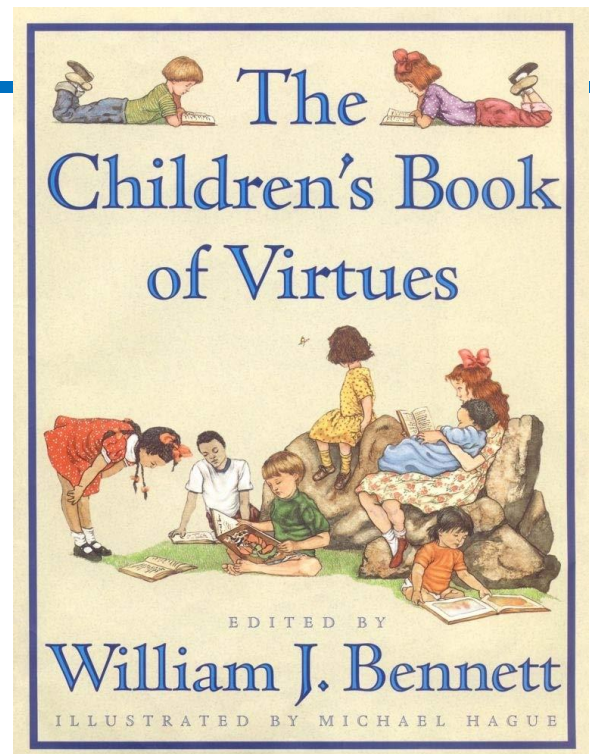

“The noblest question in the world,” observed Benjamin Franklin in Poor Richard, “is What good may I do in it?” “Hang in there!” is more than an expression of encouragement to someone experiencing hardship or difficulty; it is sound advice for anyone intent on doing good in the world. Whether by leading or prodding others or improving oneself or contributing in the thick of things to some larger cause, perseverance is often crucial to success.

Drawing on an ancient Chinese proverb, Harry Truman recounted in his Memoirs that being president “is like riding a tiger. A man has to keep on riding or be swallowed.” He went on to explain that “a President either is constantly on top of event or, if he hesitates, events will soon be on top of him. I never felt that I could let up for a single moment.” Perseverance is an essential quality of character in high-level leadership. Much good that might have been achieved in the world is lost through hesitation, faltering, wavering, vacillating, or just not sticking with it.

Like most other virtues, persistence and perseverance cannot operate for good in the world in isolation from practical intelligence. A person who is merely persistent may be a carping, pestering, irksome annoyance, having no salutary effect whatsoever. But given the right context, occurring in the right combination with other virtues, perseverance is an essential ingredient in human progress. Sam Adams saw it thus in the gestation period prior to our birth as a nation. “The necessity of the times,” he proclaimed in 1771, “more than ever, calls for our utmost circumspection, deliberation, fortitude, and perseverance.” And the same holds true today.

From The Book of Virtues, Edited by William J. Bennett
